Au Vieux Paris Antiques is honored to have made The List! -chosen by an international panel of Architects, Designers, Decorators and Collectors.

Editor-in-Chief, Ms. Paige Rense, has this to say, "This special section of Architectural Digest, 'Shopping Around The World,' can serve as a guide for your shopping in general or point you in the right direction for finding that one elusive object you've been seeking all these years."

May I hope to have the pleasure of welcoming you to Breaux Bridge, Louisiana very soon, where a diverse and select collection awaits your perusal.

Mes amitiés,
